The enemy's Ovid signal is one we have never seen.

I didn't think she could ride anything other than a bicycle,

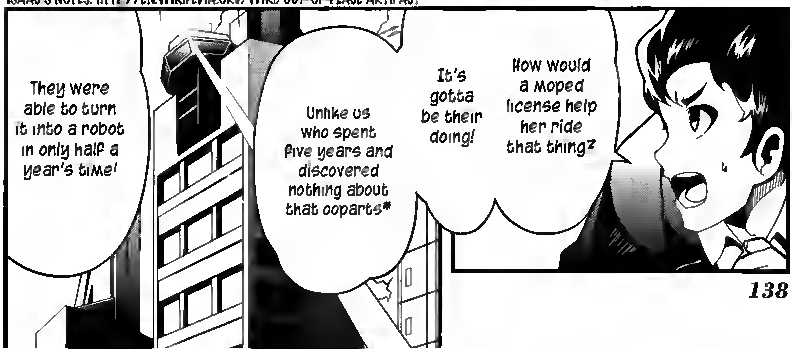
Could this mean... that your cousin was the one operating it?

ISAAC'S NOTES. HTTP://EN.WIKIPEDIA.ORG/WIKI/OUT-OF-PLACE_ARTIFACT



How would a moped license help her ride that thing?
It's gotta be their doing!
Unlike us who spent five years and discovered nothing about that ooparts*
They were able to turn it into a robot in only half a year's time!

There's gotta be some kind of secret to...
UWAH!!
EH!?
Uh... um
SHHH!
Please don't leave me sempai~~!
Eh? Hold it.
You stay here.

What had you intended to do if Kyouno Madoka had been unable to operate the Vox Aura?
The only person who the Vox will recognize is she who bears the Memoria.
And if, for instance, only the Vox Aura was to fall into the hands of the enemy, as long as Kyouno Madoka-san fought to the death, the chances were fifty-fifty.
Depending on the circumstances, the opposite could have been favorable as well.
At any rate, I'm relieved we weren't forced to use such heavy-handed methods to get her to operate the Ovid.
Doing so is somewhat dangerous, so I didn't want to if I could avoid it.
I also considered forcibly inducing a biological response, but...

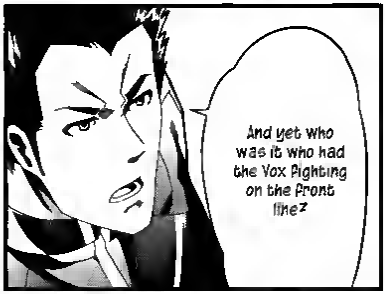
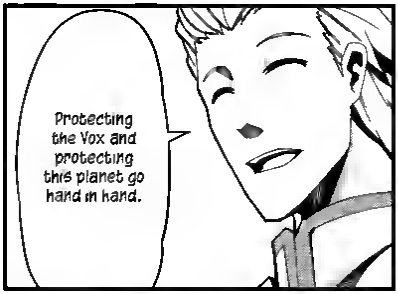
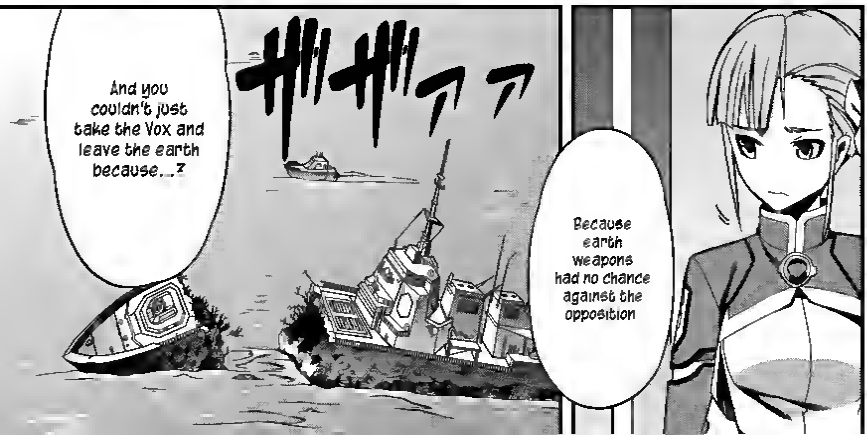
What you just said, it helped me understand something
It helped me understand that the general concept of protecting this planet has fallen right out of your head



And yet who was it who had the Vox fighting on the front line?



Protecting the Vox and protecting this planet go hand in hand.



And you couldn't just take the Vox and leave the earth because...?
Because earth weapons had no chance against the opposition

...That's enough
Then earth would fall into their sphere of influence,
and would suffer a tragic fate.
ゴゴゴゴ
Speaking only in terms of the airframe's performance, the Vox has enough power to out-perform the enemy
The rest is up to her I suppose.
So what will we do next time?
Will our next opponent be someone we can beat so haphazardly?
Can I ask you just one last thing?
ゲゲ!!
Anything you like.
So we're doing this haphazardly anyway...
I suppose you could say that.

The main force,
